

Little Rock Warns Negroes Not to Enter Schools

EMPLOYEES of the Bank of America had a party yesterday celebrating the 30th Anniversary of Harold West with the Bank. West, who was given a traveling case by the bank employees, will leave next Saturday for a vacation trip to Hawaii. Pictured with West as he cut a cake at the celebration are, left to right, Betty Youngberg, Ruth Barns, George Chih, West, and Barbara McMillan. The party was a surprise to West. (Desert Sun Photo).

Woman to Face Court Today in Bad Check Case

Held on suspicion of felony check counts, Ruth Marie Taylor, 30, is scheduled to appear before Judicial District Judge Eugene Theriault today for arraignment. The woman, who claimed to police that her husband told her they had an account in the Bank of America, cashed a check at the bank for $140 and two other checks at local stores, before boarding a bus and heading for Blythe. The teller at the Bank of America noticed an error in cashing the check and notified police. Sgt. John Herrera found that the woman had fled by bus headed for Blythe and notified Indian police to arrest her in that city. She was returned here yesterday and booked on the check charges. Her husband, Arthur Lee Taylor, is currently serving a jail sentence in Riverside.

Meter Yield in July, $1.31 Each

The City of Palm Springs earned slightly more than $1.31 from each of the 313 parking meters in operation during the month of July. City Finance Director Shelby Langford said the city collected a total of $412 from the relatively few meters in operation for the first month of the 1958 fiscal year. However, Langford cautioned, most of the city's meters will be clicking away at the normal fall tempo when Sept. 1 rolls around.

Ingrid, Producer Slip Into Sweden

STOCKHOLM — (UPI) — Swedish actress Ingrid Bergman and Swedish producer Lars Schmidt arrived late Thursday by air from Paris for a surprise visit. The couple earlier had announced plans to marry but will have to wait at least a year pending further legal action on Ingrid's Mexican divorce from Italian movie producer, Roberto Rossellini.

Czech Workers Held Liable for Machines

VIENNA — (UPI) — Workers in Communist Czechoslovakia will henceforth be liable for all damage caused by them during work, Prague Radio announced Thursday.

Sitdown Succeeds

Ice Cream Strike Won by Negroes

OKLAHOMA CITY — (UPI) — Negro youths, encouraged by initial success in gaining fountain service at a downtown drug store, made plans today for "soda fountain vigils" in other stores. After nearly two days of a sit-down strike at the Katz drug store fountain, in which waitresses stood idly by with their arms crossed, the store reversed itself and served the Negroes. While a group of curious watched, the Negroes sipped sodas, scooped out sundaes and ate their dinners. The store's manager, J. B. Masoner, had no comment on the reversal of store policy and would not say if it would be permanent.

U.S. DISSATISFIED WITH UN ACTION

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Most Western diplomats today hailed unanimous United Nations passage of an all-Arab peace resolution for the Middle East but the United States apparently still had some doubts. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles insisted the future of the Middle East still would be settled by deeds and not by the words of the resolution putting it up to the Arabs themselves to keep the peace. But the United States believed greater good had been done for the Middle East at this session than would have been achieved at the summit conference originally wanted by Russia. "I don't think a summit meeting could have accomplished as much as this because a summit meeting would have excluded the Arab nations," U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said. The success was due in large part to the presence of the small nations. "The resolution, which puts much

Zeppo Marx to Testify Today in Gambling Probe

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — (UPI) — Zeppo Marx, Palm Springs resident and one time member of the famed Marx Brothers comedy team, was slated to appear today before a federal Grand Jury investigating an international gambling syndicate. Marx, the "straight man" for the comedy act, was among about 180 persons subpoenaed to tell the jury what they knew of the ring which operated for 10 weeks last fall in Terre Haute, Ind.

Jewel Thieves Get $150,000 in Chicago

CHICAGO — (UPI) — Officials of Harry Winston, Inc., internationally known jewel firm, today set the loss in a daring daylight robbery of the Loop office here at more than $150,000. Two gunmen, one posing as a postman, snatched, gagged and handcuffed the manager of the office Thursday, then spent half an hour looting a walk-in safe of hundreds of uncut diamonds and other gems.

EAST LANSING, Mich. — (UPI) — Better teachers, greater school facilities and more pupils are resulting in more gifted children coming from average income families, a recent Michigan State University study shows.

Congress Set To Adjourn By Saturday

Senate and House Speed Action on Final Barriers

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The Eighty-fifth Congress today was set to chop down some of the few remaining barriers to final adjournment, now expected no later than Saturday night. The Senate prepared to meet early and work through what Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson, Tex., warned might be a long session. The House, running ahead of the Senate in its handling of major bills, was scheduled to act on a series of minor measures.

Today's first order of business in the Senate was a bill to extend the government's authority to renegotiate contracts to recapture "excess profits."

THURSDAY NIGHT the Senate took a long stride toward adjournment by scuttling legislation that would have nullified some recent Supreme Court decisions, especially in the area of subversion. By a narrow 41-40 margin, it sent the bills back to the Senate Judiciary Committee, in effect killing for this session all pending legislation to offset court rulings.

Specifically, the close vote was a rejection of a bill by Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), and an amendment by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.).

The bill would have reinstated state anti-subversive laws, nullified by the Supreme Court in its 1956 Steve Nelson decision. The amendment would have stipulated that federal laws would cancel out state statutes in the same field only if Congress specifically said so, or there was a clear conflict between the two.

THE HOUSE meantime, completed congressional action on a bill to grant a $25,000 annual pension to former Presidents Harry Truman and Herbert Hoover and all future ex-presidents. As sent to the White House by voice vote, the measure also would provide some "fringe" benefits for the one-time chief executive as well as $10,000-a-year pensions for their widows.

Little Rock to Bar Negroes From Schools

Warning Issued By Superintendent Of Central High

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — (UPI) — Virgil T. Blossom, superintendent of Little Rock Schools, warned Negroes Thursday that Central High will not allow them to register for the fall term.

"We are planning to open Central High this September as an all-white school," Blossom said. He said should the stay of mandate, granted by the U. S. Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals Thursday, be in effect when school opens Sept. 2 "we will tell any Negroes who come to Central the same thing."

THE ST. LOUIS COURT stayed its Monday reversal of Federal District Judge Harry J. Lemley's decision to halt integration at Central until mid-semester of 1961.

Mrs. L. C. Daisy Bates, president of the Arkansas NAACP, declined comment on the stay of mandate.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who alerted Arkansas legislators for a "most likely" emergency session for Monday to consider anti-integration legislation, said Thursday's ruling "makes a difference."

But two of the state's top officials said the special session couldn't be avoided.

Carroll Hollenworth, dean of the Arkansas House, said: "We will not have to act quite so quickly, but I still think the Legislature should go into session immediately."

Glenn Walther, speaker of the House, said "a special session will be called for next week."

Funeral Rites for Cal Lugo to be Held Tomorrow

Funeral rites will be conducted tonight and tomorrow for Calisto "Cal" Lugo, 94-year-old Morongo Reservation Indian who lived more than 50 years in Palm Springs.

He died Aug. 11 at his home, 130 Calle Encelia.

Rosary services will be conducted at 8 p.m. today at Wiefels and Son Mortuary chapel. Requiem Mass will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, with Rev. Thomas Flahive officiating.

Burial will follow in the Palm Springs Indian Cemetery.

NAACP PLANS TO MAKE LAST DITCH APPEAL IN BATTLE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People prepared to make a last-ditch appeal to the Supreme Court today that would permit Negro children to re-enter Little Rock's beleaguered Central High School next month. Legal sources expressed belief there was little chance the move would succeed.

Denmark Bans U.S. Sub 'Skate' From Its Ports

COPENHAGEN, Den. — (UPI) — Denmark has banned the scheduled Aug. 28 visit of the atomic submarine USS Skate for fear an accident might expose Danish residents to the effects of nuclear radiation.

The ban, announced Thursday night by Premier and Foreign Minister H. C. Hansen, was the first such move by a NATO nation in the atomic age. U. S. nuclear submarines previously have visited Britain, France and Holland.

Hansen said he called off the plans because the Danish Atomic Energy Commission had warned against the potential risk if an accident happened.

"Even though an accident of any kind is not likely to happen, I found it best to follow the advice of the atomic scientists," Hansen said.

The Skate has visited Europe previously and in recent days its exploits under the Arctic ice cap have been bannered and hailed in the Danish newspapers.

Cathedral City Asks Protection

Letters from John W. Downs and S. H. Scott of Cathedral City urging the board of supervisors to "give serious thought" to increasing the number of men on patrol in the Cathedral City area, were received by the board of supervisors Monday and referred to Sheriff Joe W. Rice and Supervisor George Berkey.

Scott said he is "alarmingly concerned" over existing conditions in the area.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. — (UPI) — Not only the bride had something borrowed at this wedding, Walter Williams, the best man, had to borrow $75 to post bond after being arrested for speeding en route to the ceremony.

Will Abandon Tests if Russia Agrees to Quit President Says Today

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower said today the United States is ready to suspend nuclear weapons tests for one year starting Oct. 31 if Russia doesn't resume its tests and agrees to negotiate on a world test ban.

The President said that as a result of the recent East-West technical talks at Geneva this country "is prepared to proceed promptly to negotiate an agreement" for permanent suspension of tests and establishment of a control system recommended by the experts.

THE PRESIDENT said:

"If this is accepted in principle by the other nations which have tested nuclear weapons, then in order to facilitate the detailed negotiations the United States is prepared, unless testing is resumed by the Soviet Union, to withhold further testing on its part of atomic and hydrogen weapons for a period of one year from the beginning of the negotiations."

The U. S. will be ready to open such negotiations Oct. 31, the President said in a special statement.

EISENHOWER ALSO said this country would be prepared to extend its suspension on a year by year basis upon two conditions.

They were that an agreed inspection system was installed and working effectively and that satisfactory progress was being made in reaching agreement on and carrying out substantial arms control measures such as the U. S. has long sought.

The President's statement was sent to U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson in Moscow to hand over to the Russian Foreign Office.

It also was sent to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council in Paris.

THE PRESIDENT noted his long-standing position that suspension of nuclear weapons tests "is not, in itself, a measure of disarmament or a limitation of armament."

But he added that an agreement on a limited world ban on such tests could lead to "more substantial agreements" as to limitation of production of fissionable materials for weapons and "other essential phases of disarmament."

"It is in this hope that the United States makes this proposal," he said.

UNION HOUSE CLEANING PROGRESSING, REPORT

UNITY HOUSE, Pa. — (UPI) — AFL-CIO President George Meany sized up organized labor's clean-up drive today and reported "considerable progress" on weeding out crooks and racketeers from union office.

The tough-talking prosecutor of corrupt labor barons acknowledged there still is a big job ahead. He said as much Thursday when he called three more unions — Carpenters, Hotel and Restaurant Workers and Meat Cutters — onto the carpet to answer corruption charges.

But Meany was reported to believe the AFL-CIO has moved more rapidly than he had thought possible when Senate investigators began digging up dirt in the house of labor.

He listed these steps to newsmen during four days of AFL-CIO Executive Council sessions at this Pocono Mountain summer camp: —Further isolation of the Teamsters Union and its boss, James R. Hoffa, following expulsion last December. Mutual aid pacts between AFL-CIO unions and the truck union are now forbidden.

—Amazing progress by the American Bakery and Confectionery Workers in taking over locals of the exiled Bakery and Confectionery Union. Meany said the ABC has won 186 National Labor Relations Board elections, picking up 77,000 members since it was chartered in December. "This shows workers will vote against corrupt leadership in a free election," Meany said.

—Adoption of AFL-CIO ethics codes by 48 national unions since Meany ordered this done last February. The remaining 90 or so affiliates are expected to comply soon.

—Crackdowns on two big building trades unions — the 800,000-member Carpenters and the 270, 000-member Operating Engineers. Carpenters chief M. A. Hutcherson was directed to justify his role in an Indiana highway scandal or face ouster from his council seat. Engineers bosses were told to get rid of corrupt elements or be expelled.

Other unions who are on trial before an AFL-CIO "good housekeeping" seal will be awarded are making progress and have kicked out their worst leaders, Meany said. These include the distillery workers and United textile workers.

Terrorists Shoot French Consul

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — French Consul Jean Gaspard, 35, was shot and critically wounded by terrorists Thursday night while driving to the airport. He was not expected to live.

Gaspard, first foreign victim of the recent outburst of terrorism in strife-torn Lebanon, was hit in the stomach and liver by an explosive bullet.

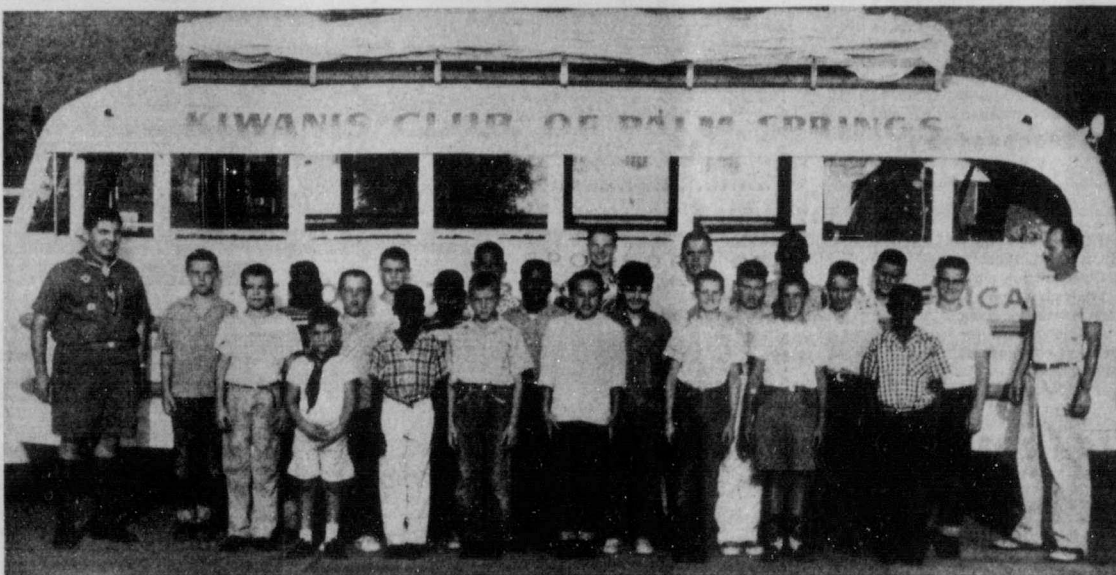

He was taken to the American University Hospital where he underwent emergency surgery.

More Red Planes Menace Nationalists

TAIPEI — (UPI) — Six waves of Communist planes passed through the Matsu area today but no hostilities were reported from the tense Formosa Straits.

The Defense Ministry said one group of Red planes flew directly over Matsu without attempting an attack.

The type and number of Communist planes were not given.

Crosby Plotter Given Life Term

Admits Guilt on 6 Counts

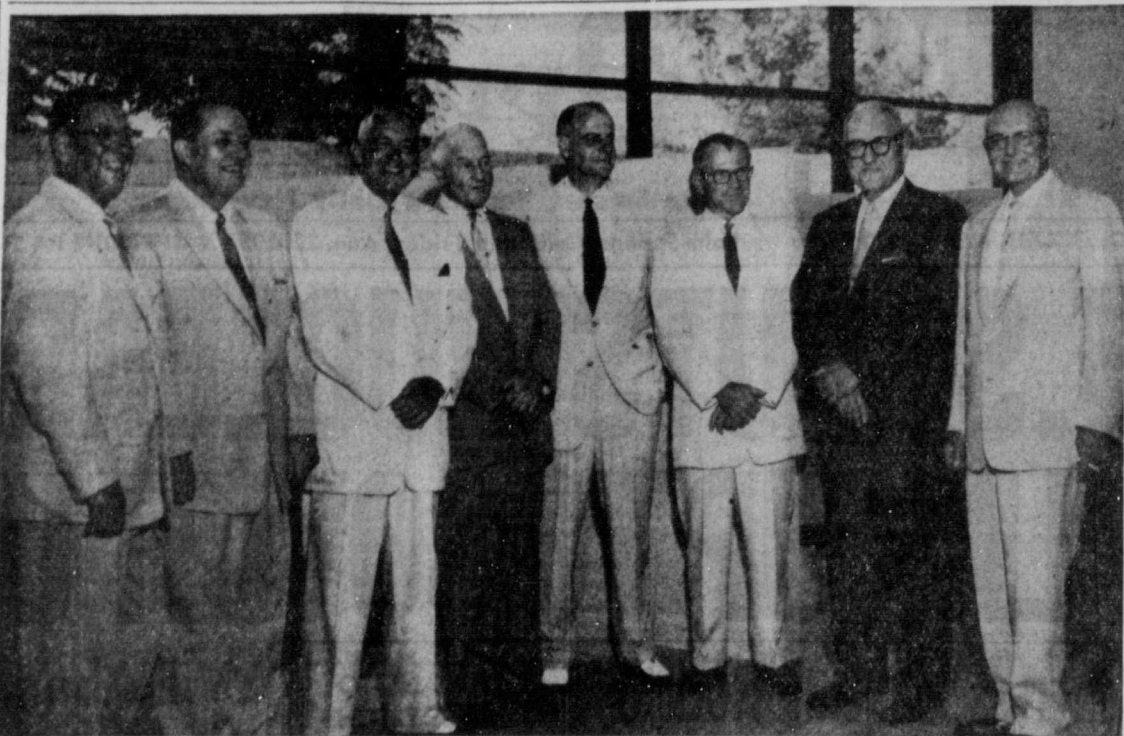

A 49-year-old ex-convict who admitted a plot to kidnap Kathy Grant Crosby, wife of crooner and Palm Desert honorary mayor Bing Crosby, was sentenced to life in prison yesterday by a Los Angeles judge.

Wilburn E. Davison pleaded guilty to four counts of robbery and was found guilty on two other counts of kidnaping before Superior Judge Richard C. Fieldew. The robbery counts involved markets in Lakewood, Compton and Long Beach in which a total of more than $30,000 was taken.

Davison was arrested as a suspect in the robberies and while being held told a tale of plans to kidnap Kathy Crosby. He said the plan was abandoned when he learned Mrs. Crosby was pregnant. Mrs. Crosby gave birth to a son Aug. 8.

No complaint was issued against Davison on the Crosby account, but he also admitted kidnaping a market manager and wife and forcing them to drive him to a La Puente market, which he robbed of $2,400.

Davison has served prison terms for grand larceny, forgery and robbery since 1929.

Yacht With Four Aboard, Missing

HONG KONG — (UPI) — The Yacht Tora, with four Americans aboard, has been missing off the coast of Communist China for nearly seven weeks, it was reported today.

There was no way of verifying immediately the obvious speculation that the Americans have been kidnapped by the Reds.

A spokesman at the U. S. Consulate said nothing has been heard from the Tora since July 7, when it left Formosa on the way to this British China-coast colony.

The consulate was not even aware that the boat was in this part of the world until Mrs. Elizabeth Van Doeren, of Elkhart, Ind., wrote to ask for information about her son John.

Village Families Move to Higher Income Brackets

(Special to the Desert Sun) NEW YORK — A considerable portion of Palm Springs families have moved into higher income brackets in recent years.

More of them are in the $4,000 and over groups than ever before. A smaller proportion, conversely, is left in the lower income categories.

Despite occasional periods of recession and despite price inflation, there has been a persistent rise in real, spendable income and buying power.

The facts are brought out in a nationwide breakdown of 1957 incomes, revealing the portion of the population in each grouping. The copyrighted study, made by Sales Management, covers every county in the United States.

It determines, for each community, whether the so-called "average income" is enjoyed by a large part of the population or whether it is merely a statistical figure resulting from a balancing off between very high and very low income groups.

In Palm Springs, 48.4 percent of all households had net incomes, after taxes, of $4,000 or more last year, the study shows. They accounted for 75.8 percent of all earnings.

In the prior year, as a comparison, the consumer units in this category garnered only 69.2 percent of such earnings.

The breakdown shows also that 9.2 percent of the households locally were in the $7,000 to $10,000 bracket last year. They received 15.0 percent of the total income. Some 23.4 percent of the households were in the $2,500 to $4,000 class. They collected 15.6 percent of the income.

It all adds up, for the average household, to greater purchasing power than before. The increase in earnings has more than kept pace with the rise in the cost of living.

Much of this available cash was not, however, taken to market, although consumer purchasing stood up surprisingly well for a depression year. A large part went into savings, which are now at an all-time high.

These cash reserves will eventually make themselves felt, when the consumer is ready, in greater expenditures for cars, homes and the many luxuries of modern living.

Floods Ease In Oklahoma Cities Today

United Press International Floodwaters eased off in the Wewoka and Seminole, Okla., areas today, ending an impromptu rodeo in which residents stood on bridges and roped cattle swept down rain-swollen Wewoka Creek.

Scattered showers continued Thursday in the southeast and east central sections of Oklahoma but no further flooding was reported.

About 30 families returned to their homes in the area after being forced to flee by flash floods triggered by a 9-inch downpour at Wewoka and a 6-inch rain at Seminole Wednesday night.

Although some cattle were lost, residents managed to rope most of the animals as they drifted down the creek and drag them to safety.

The heaviest shower Thursday was 2.38 inches reported at McAlester, Okla. Texas was hit by its fourth straight day of rain.

Find Bodies Of Two Plane Crash Victims

Bodies of an Ontario couple, who last March 15 took off from Palm Springs airport and disappeared in the rugged San Geronimo mountains, were found yesterday by a U. S. Forest Service Pilot.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hill, flying to Ontario from Marion, Ohio, had crashed in their light plane at the 8,000 foot level of the 11,485-foot Mt. San Geronimo.

T. H. Zimmerman of Thermal spotted the wreckage of the plane while he was making a routine flight for the Forest Service.

The bleached bones of the couple were retrieved by sheriffs deputies last night. During the prolonged search for the couple last March two pilots from Van Nuys died in a plane crash while looking for them, and a second plane crashed injuring two flyers.

The Hills are survived by two daughters, Margaret, 11, and Patricia Mae, 9, both who have been living in Marion, Ohio since last March. Hill was an electronics engineer in Pomona.

Hemet, Elsinore Chambers Back Sales Tax Law

Two chamber of commerce resolutions urging continuation of the Bradley-Burns cities - county sales tax agreement providing for collection of taxes by the state were received and filed by the Board of Supervisors Monday. The two chambers were those of Hemet Valley and Elsinore Valley.

"The action by the City of Corona to terminate the contract will increase costs and burdens of Riverside County retailers and discourage purchasing within the county by those who reside in adjacent conforming counties," said the chambers. "We hope the Corona city council will reconsider its action of July 7."

Two sad-eyed canines were today added to the list of animals now available and ready for adoption at the Palm Springs Animal Shelters.

Shelter newcomers are a tan and black German shepherd and a black Samoyed male, according to the Palm Springs Animal Protective League.

The shepherd, League officials said, has been raised with children. Both dogs were turned in by families who are no longer able to keep them.

Also available for adoption is a boxer mother and two of her pups and two kittens, one yellow and one black and white.

Shelter animals may be viewed from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. and from 3 to 5 p.m. daily, including Sunday.

Hope Grows for Solution Of State Water Problem

One of California's greatest and most difficult problems . . . adequate and equitable distribution of water throughout the State . . . now appears to be on the way towards a final and satisfactory solution.

A means whereby all sections and factions can be brought into agreement appears to have been found in the proposal of a State Constitutional Amendment establishing basic water rights and fundamental law governing distribution thereof which it is hoped will appear on the ballot at a statewide election two years hence.

Considerable credit is due to a special State committee which has been working on the problems involved for some years and has evolved the plan in broad principles sufficient in scope to lay a foundation for later implementation in detail as regards each area.

Inasmuch as two-thirds of California's rainfall is received in the northern sector containing one-third of the population, the matter of protecting both present and future needs of those having an abundance and at the same time securing and assuring sufficient supplies for distant sections suffering from water deficiencies is a problem as large and varied as this great State.

Even with the adoption of legal procedures and agreement on general principles, a great deal more will remain to be done, much of it lengthy, detailed and time consuming work, before any actual distribution of water on a statewide system could take place.

Once sources and supplies are agreed upon, engineering, rights of way, construction, amounts distributed, costs and many other factors must be determined.

Many years may be required before the people will see an actual system of adequate and equitable water distribution in operation throughout the entire length of California.

But nothing could be more worth waiting for, and it is most encouraging that the first steps in the great plan for the future are now under way.

May they be successful in every particular.

Don't Stone the Prophets

WASHINGTON, D. C. —Playwright Arthur Miller will never be a protectionist of American internal security, as every good citizen ought to be. But the lanky, leftwing author will never be much of a threat either.

He was very uncooperative when called before the House Committee on Un-American Activities which asked him to confirm its findings on some Red conspirators who were one-time friends and associates of Miller. The House, acting as agent for the sovereign people of the United States, asserted its rightful authority and cited Miller for contempt of Congress, that is contempt for the American people, their government and their proper concern for their own survival in a hostile world of Communism.

But Miller's defense lawyers got him off on a technicality, which is what defense lawyers are for. In all, it's my opinion that the law was well served in this instance. The unfavorable publicity was punishment enough to fit Miller's "crime." He admitted association with the public enemies and refused to turn them in. But he has repented. Let him go and sin no more.

Arthur Miller, like a lot of us, is a better writer than a witness. He has an article in this month's Harper's, called "The Shadows of the Gods," and it is much better testimony than he ever gave from the witness seat. The current practice that only liberals should give favorable notice to liberal writing has never received any hospitality in this column. It is a form of in-breeding when liberals and/or conservatives write only for their own kind. It is a prevalent form of book-burning when the ideologists of opposing creeds destroy their rivals' works with what is known in critical circles as the Averted Look. Arthur Miller although not writing about politics in the Harper's article, does address himself to life-sized subjects which concern public affairs. He is saying that:

1.) We Americans (not excluding I think, Arthur Miller) suffer from having a juvenile viewpoint toward life. This accounts for the popularity of such plays as "The Diary of Anne Frank," "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," "Look Homeward Angel" and all those others in the cult of Angry Young Men. Now, the juvenile viewpoint is appealing and pitiful. Anger contains much honest indignation against injustice. But when we are (and the question goes for Miller, too)—when we are going to grow up and play the part of adults in our aging world?

2.) All of art (and of governance) must go beyond the individual and the selfish political interests and must concern itself with the whole race. Social wisdom, not merely social "welfare," is the end product. To Miller, the "hidden laws of fate" lurk in man's environment as well as in his character. To Miller, this means that the American depression, in which he grew up, is as important a repository of truth as is the heart of man. Economic environment brought "Death" to Miller's "Salesman." In "Oedipus Rex," the pestilence which ravaged the people co-existed with the guilt that tormented the king.

3.) American "success" in accumulating money and/or power is not the blessing we think but is a curse which destroys men, and is destroying us as a nation.

Whatever one thinks of these ideas, they are lofty, challenging and important. They are not suspicious just because they were uttered by Arthur Miller. He is, as Joe McCarthy was in a much rougher fashion, a prophet of our times. We should not dislike such men for their associations, hostile or friendly, although this is a difficult admonition. We should not give such men the Averted Look or Averted Look, even and especially when we disagree. For a prophet, if he gets no more than a glimpse of truth, is just what Miller says:

" . . . a destroyer of chaos, a man privy to the council of the hidden gods who administer the hidden laws that bind us all and destroy us all if we do not know them."

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: We are invited to a silver wedding party to be held in an exclusive hotel. With the invitation came the request for $20 per couple, or $10 single. Our hostess is very friendly with the silver wedding couple, but we hardly know these people. The couple celebrating their wedding is not hard up and he is a well known professional man. My hostess said they were collecting the money to send them on a second honeymoon trip. Should we be a part of this?

IN DOUBT

DEAR IN: If you hardly know the couple for whom the party is being given, decline the invitation.

DEAR ABBY: Here is a question from a lonely, unattached, mature woman. Would it be proper for a woman in my position to invite a single, unattached gentleman to my home for a meal? I have known him casually for a long time. Does this cheapen a woman in a man's eyes? How do men feel about this? Please reply.

UNCERTAIN

DEAR UNCERTAIN: I can think of nothing a lonely unattached man would appreciate more than a dinner invitation from a woman in like circumstances. Ask him.

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with a married man. He is nothing to look at and I am not beautiful. We are just two plain people in love. His wife is very mean to him and has had him sleeping on the couch for two years because she doesn't want him near her. That's why he turned to me for the love and understanding he needed. He has three children who hate him because his wife poisoned their minds against him. He says everyone at his plant hates him because he is quiet and minds his own business. His wife refuses to give him a divorce and I can't turn against him because he says I am the only one in the world who loves him. What should I do?

IN LOVE

DEAR IN: From what you tell me I'm afraid your boyfriend has been on the wrong couch for two years. He should see a psychiatrist. This romance will not get you anything but a broken heart. Do yourself a big favor and send him on his way.

DEAR ABBY: I am 34 years old and yesterday I bought a bicycle for $40.00. When my husband laid his eyes on the bike he threw a fit and RAN, not walked, back with the bike for a refund. Traffic isn't too heavy where we live and I have always wanted a bike. My husband says I am too old to ride a bike, but I don't think I am. It would come in handy for marketing and the exercise would be good for me. Am I wrong to want a bike or is he being unreasonable?

BIKE LOVER

DEAR BIKE: Frankly, I see no reason why you shouldn't have the bike. At 34 you are in your prime. Soft peddle it for a while and start hinting around Christmas time.

DEAR ABBY: I am going with an executive in his late forties. He is married and we have to be careful about being seen together because of his position and reputation. He says his wife is a mental case. I have talked to people who know his wife and they say that his wife is fine. HE is the mental case. He is a big spender and good company. I don't know who to believe. Can you give me some helpful advice?

BUNNY

DEAR BUNNY: It doesn't really matter which one is the mental case. The man is married. Drum up a romance with one nice single man about whose mental state there is no doubt.

CONFIDENTIAL TO HURT

MOTHER: Your husband is wrong. Parents should never compare their children with one another. The one who gets the criticism is usually the one who needs the praise.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

If you want a collection of Abby's best letters and answers in one book, ask your bookdealer to get "DEAR ABBY" for you.

When We Try to Soothe the Baby

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

Turn out the lights
To foil the crickets,
So orders Mayor Bogert
The only ones that
We have now are those Battered by Yogert.

Personally, I think it was rather mean. Turning out the lights on Indian Avenue to discourage the crickets. Just like not leaving a light in the window for the wondering—well, anyway, the guy they killed the fatted calf for.

I can't recall his name right now.

EDITOR'S NOTE—The Prodigal Son, you bum.)

SO THIS IS August 22 and in a trifle more than a week, it will be September. That's the month when the wheels of progress, sort of slowed down to a walk during July and August, start to pick up momentum.

Schools, churches, everything peeps up.

What are we waiting for? THE STATE DIVISION of Highways has a lot of standard signs they put up like "Take Right Lane for so and so," or "So and so turn-off, one fourth mile."

These are all good and an aid to traffic. But they have one which I think is one of the grossest understatements of all time.

BETWEEN COLTON and Ontario on Highways 70-99 there are signs, one leaving Ontario coming this way and one leaving Colton going that way. They advise motorists:

"CROSS TRAFFIC NEXT 13 MILES."

Thirteen miles! I never saw so much cross traffic in all of my life as in all the remaining miles to Los Angeles.

Everybody's scowling.

HAS SOMETHING happened to our reputation for having one of the most courteous and understanding police forces?

I get plenty of mail and have noticed that lately there have been complaints that our night police are not taking care of the Palm Springs reputation that our local officers are on the courteous side—strict in enforcing the law but tempering that enforcement with the human touch.

THE LAW has to be enforced, that's for sure, what with all of the goofy drivers on the road and rich pickings sundry persons of low character think they can find here.

But there's also the old standard belief that every person is innocent until he's found guilty. Some of the complaints have been to the effect that the officers have put that backwards. That they have been pushed around unduly.

Well, anyway, I'm just a reporter telling what I have been told and I hate to hear tales which make people think I am fabricating when I brag about Palm Springs and all of its fine facets.

YOU KNOW, these parties where all of the men gather in the kitchen. Most of you think that it's because it's easier to shake up one. But Harold Coffin says no. He claims the men congregate in the kitchen because that's the only place where they can get away from the women.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

An elevating and artistic week in San Francisco. The other day we talked to Mickey Cohen, the retired target of many a sawed-off.

And the other night we went to the opening of an art exhibition by Pouette, the sample-size artist from the Left Bank of Paris.

Both were rewarding experiences. We wouldn't have missed them for anything.

THOUGH Pouette and Mickey are not acquainted, I think they should be.

Mickey was once tagged by the journals as Los Angeles' foremost gangster — it pained him, but that is the way we journalists are. Always searching for the short, descriptive word.

He is now collaborating with Ben Hecht on a book: "The Mickey Cohen Story."

Pouette entered the world of art by peddling risqué books around the Cafe Deux Magots and the Floria.

After awhile she bought herself some paints and canvas and voila! From the Left Bank she moved to Right Bank exhibits. Life magazine took pictures of her. The critics discovered her—she is a primitive. A primitive paints pictures that you think "Heavenly days, I could paint that myself."

OK. Go ahead and get discovered.

THE AFFAIR getting an elegant rating from the press. I took my teen-age daughter. She immediately lost her white gloves and stood the whole evening with her hands behind her back in an agony of embarrassment.

We do not know much about Art. But we listened closely. Sample: "My dear Pouette, I do think this one is SO amusing."

Personally, if somebody said my paintings were amusing—unless I was a comic strip primitive—I would pick up the amusing picture and belt them over their amusing heads.

But I gather this is a compliment in art circles.

It is a handy phrase. I think everyone should have one knowledgeable remark to make at an art exhibit. I intend to lift that one. Heaven knows what we will use for an encore.

I INTERVIEWED Pouette several years ago in Paris. She lived in a walk-up in the Latin Quarter.

It was a tiny apartment and she was painting a primitive that was five feet high and 20 feet long. The apartment was too small to spread it out. She painted as much as she could. Then she rolled up the finished part and painted another section.

While she was exhibiting in Los Angeles, she sold it to a Mr. George George of Beverly Hills. She said 'ave a beag place weath swimming pool. So I guess he has room enough to hang it.

"HOW DOES SHE PAINT with goulash?" whispered my daughter. "That's what the man said. She paints with goulash."

"You don't say?" I am impressed with what that child picks up. The whole evening improved as far as I was concerned. I could picture myself—(a primitive picture)—saying to the neighbors:

"Attended a MOST amusing art show the other fortnight. Painting with goulash."

"Goulache," said the art lady next to me. "It is a mixture of water color and gum."

After that we sort of drifted up to the door and into the street. A most instructive week what with Pouette and Mickey Cohen. And I might add, MOST amusing. Dig that, cast. MOST amusing.

QUOTES

ATLANTA—Georgia Gov. Marvin Griffin, under fire for his administration's alleged mis-handling of contracts for high way centerline paint, in an executive order to prison director Jack Forester:

"Get you some syrup buckets and bedslats, make paddles out of them and make that paint."

GRIN AND BEAR IT By LICHTY

"That's the advantage of books, Junior! . . . You don't have to call a high-priced technician to repair them every few months! . . ."

EARL WILSON:

Behind the Scenes

NEW YORK — You just have to like the John Foster Dulles impersonation at the Copacabana. "Now our interpretation of John Foster Dulles arriving at the Washington airport," says Comedian Mitch De Wood — and his partner, Marty Allen, runs in breathlessly, waves, and shouts, "Bye!" . . . Have you noticed how the country's gone pizza-punchy? The B.W. found a spot on upper B'way where a cook makes pizza in the window instead of flapjacks as in the long ago.

Gregory Peck of course gets the red-carpet treatment while here plugging "The Big Country" and according to the office memo that includes "a visit to Philadelphia by air-conditioned Cadillac" . . . Rabbi Samuel L. Silver wrote to Quote that Goldfine never paid his hotel bill "because he doesn't know me from Adams."

After The Baseball Old Timers —including Ty Cobb—had a party at his saloon, Toots Shor groaned, "Those old timers made an old-timer out of me." . . . Gradually the idea's fading; that beauty winners can't do much else.

Lovely Louise O'Brien of Tulsa, who was "Miss Oklahoma" and one of the runners-up in the '51 "Miss America" contest, is now singing daily on the Arthur Godfrey CBS daytime TV show . . . Taffy Tuttle was sure surprised when she visited California. She'd always thought the Hollywood Bowl was a bowling alley.

Backstage on T.V.: I loved that Edgar Bergen-Mortimer Snerd exchange on the Bob Crosby show about the ugly content. "Was the competition stiff?" asked Bergen. "No," replied Mortimer, "but the judges were!" (Bergen — who just broke an 11-year record at the Manes in Reno—is a genuinely nice man who enjoys the success of others. "Wasn't it wonderful," he asked me backstage at the Crosby program, "to see the Andrews Sisters stop the show?") What's what with "Sgt. Bilko"?

I asked Phil Silvers, resuming his fourth season filming "Sgt. Bilko," if he was a little bored with it—actors usually get that way—and Phil replied:

"I don't want to get sage about it but I'd like to pass on some things I've learned to some other people."

So you may see Phil getting into the directing and producing end before long. Although he's still keenly interested in his own great success with the Army show, to the extent that he's put Keefe Brasselle in with him as another sergeant.

And then you've heard the report that he's trying to grab off Bing Crosby's sons to be members of the platoon.

"I wouldn't exploit them," said Phil. "They know I wouldn't. I've known them for a long time. Gary is almost as glib as his dad right now. He can't sing as well, yet, of course."

They wouldn't be known as "Crosby" on the show, but would be actor-type soldiers.

"What about that new one that was just born the other day?" I asked Phil.

"I got my eye on him, too!" declared Phil.

Joe Rooney, Mickey's son, looks exactly like his old man at the same age — around 7 or 8 — in his debut in pictures, "Miss Casey Jones," in which he hams it up with Ernie Kovacs.

Hugh Downs of TV once lived near Hume, O., about which there's a saying, "When in Hume, do as the Humeans do." . . . Joe E. Lewis, over his operation, returns to El Rancho Vegas this week just in time to get in the middle of the controversy there over nude showgirls — not that he minds, because five bare-busted beauties are in his show . . . Jessie Royce Landis and Jean Dalrymple were at Luchow's with their Army General husbands, just in from the island—Governor's Island, where both are stationed.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Get Me Outta Here

HOLLYWOOD — Screams of "Get me outta here!" from Frank Sinatra on MGM's "Some Came Running" set in Madison, Ind., where the temperature's been hitting in the 90s, sent studio steersman Sol Siegel running to Indiana to fan The Thin One's brow . . . Back on the home lot's "Green Mansions" set, meanwhile, Audrey Hepburn, Tony Perkins and Sessue Hayakawa are working in an air-conditioned jungle! . . . Sports editors, attention: Check on a report that Rocky Marciano will fight under Sinatra's management . . . John Cohn, son of the late Columbia Picture's boss, Harry Cohn, is starting at the bottom. He got a job at the Screen Directors' Guild headquarters as an office boy . . . MGM's plans for shooting "The Darling Buds of May" include Art Carney as the farmer who refuses to pay his income taxes, Tony Randall as the tax collector who falls head-over-hindmost for The Farmer's Daughter, and Debbie Reynolds as The FD . . . Tittersome and True Tinseltown Tale: A studio press agent, fed up after losing his job, fled Filmtown for Texas, where he's pitching the Powers, That-Be to buy a new state motto: "Texas, the Largest Entirely Glacier-Free State in the Union!"

JOHN WAYNE, babysitting with his daughter, Aissa, while his ever-loving Pilar spends his hard-earned pesetas in the fashion emporiums of Paris and Rome, will be able to HIRE a platoon of babysitters any day now. Bo Roos, his manager, is in the midst of deciding whether to sell the 27 oil-rich Roosevelt-Wayne-Frank Borzage-Fred McMurray-owned acres adjoining the California Country Club to Signal Oil, Richfield or General Petroleum. Nice deciding . . . Texas oil millionaire Bill Moss, Jane Withers' ex, calls his next "Lucy" because that's Ann Miller's real name . . . John Saxon's aside to me when I asked how he's going to furnish his new home in the Hollywood Hills: "Contemporary Essential, what else?" . . . Manana from Metro: The Culver City lot is paying for freight-and-lodgings and the star is underwriting the underling wages for a special valet who's being flown in from England to keep Cary Grant all ironed-and-tidy for the new as-yet-untilled Alfred Hitchcock picture in which Cary will clamber across the faces of the Presidents at Mt. Rushmore in a suspense-chase.

Is there no end? Sheb Wooley's waxing "The Purple People-Eaters Play Earth Music" for MGM Records . . . Jerry Lewis' look-ahead to the Yuletide: "A poinsettia by any other name would be easier to spell."

CHANEL CHATTER —Where there's Gunsmoke there's fire, and their friends are worrying about the marriage of Virginia and Jim (Gunsmoke) Arness . . . Cleo Moore and producer-director Hugo Haas incorporated to co-produce a femmelatrol teleplay, Mystery Girl, in which

Cleo will play the title role . . . Memo from the much-cleaved Miss Moore: "Imagine Me playing an undercover girl!" . . . Sara Haden SOS'd her fellow TV thespians as follows: "If you've got the time, the Los Angeles Braille Institute has the facilities for you to record textbooks for blind students"—and I'm glad to report the response to Miss Haden's Help-Help! plea has been most gratifying . . . Silly-season billeted from CBS-TV boss Bill Dozier, vacationing in Mexico: "Ramfis Trujillo's yacht is anchored here in Acapulco Harbor, right outside my hotel window, with $1,000-bills dangling from the riggin—but I haven't seen one single, solitary blonde snapper biting at the bait!"

JACK WEBB is wangling a deal with the new Warner Bros. Records label to platter an LP album of recitations backed by Bill May's orchestra . . . Don Fredericks, star of Milton Caniff's new Steve Canyon teleseries, has to get his mahogany mane peroxide regularly to keep it the same color as the cartoon character's. Don gets it done at Myda's Beauty Salon in Lancaster, Calif. The owner just put up a sign reading: "Steve Canyon Has His Hair Bleached Here Once a Week." . . . The owner? Myda Fredericks. Don's wife . . . Ford Motors will be one of the sponsors of Hildegard's new 60-minute International Show, rolling in Rio in late November for telecasting in September of 1959 . . . No more westerns for Four Star Productions, according to FSteersman Dick Powell. Dick and his partners, David Niven and Charles Boyer, opining the oater bit is being overdone, have dug up a fancy $500,000 to finance the filming of a flock of comedy and mystery pilot films . . . Lloyd Bridges begged and pleaded and finally got the producer to cast his eight-year-old son, Jeff, as his TV son in a segment of the Sea Hunt series. But Jeff "froze" the minute the cameras hit him and didn't defreeze until they signed his own mother to face the filmers with him . . . This is a vacation? Desi Arnaz's phone at Del Mar, Calif., where he's taking a month's "siesta," is hooked up eight hours a day with his Hollywood headquarters at Desilu, where the un-and-coming fall filming schedule is as sizzling as the weather . . . Another Too-True One (TV Division) Her son became a Cub Scout so a certain TV actress decided to become a Den Mother. Her first assignment was a "cookout" in Griffith Park. She was told to bring two green sticks for the fire. She painted two sticks and brought them—and, forthwith, following the fluster-and-flurry that followed her tenderfoot-type fluff, she decided to take her tye out of the Cubs and send him to boarding school!

Sheptenkos In Hollywood For Summer

The Peter B. Sheptenkos are dividing their time between Palm Springs and Hollywood where they have taken an apartment for the summer.

They recently returned from a week spent in Northern California San Francisco and the Redwood country.

Their young daughter Pamela is visiting with Sheptenko's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bacigalupi in Sonora. Pamela and her two cousins, Judy and Ruthie showed the nine pure bred Morgan horses that the Bacigalupis own, at the Sonora County Fair and won nine ribbons.

Over Labor Day the girls are showing the horses at the Mariposa County Fair.

LEGAL NOTICES

NO. 292
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that under and by virtue of the authority vested by the State of California Planning and Conservation Act (Article VII, Chapter 11, Title VII, Governmental Code) the City Planning Commission will hold public hearings at 7:00 P.M. on Wednesday, September 3, 1958 and at 3:00 P.M. on Wednesday, September 17, 1958 in the City Council Chamber, City Hall, 3000 McCallum Way, in the City of Palm Springs, County of Riverside, State of California, upon a proposed future street and land use in Section 30, T4S, R4E, S3B & M as follows:

Streets: Consideration will be given to the alignment and design of future major, secondary and collector streets in Section 30 as shown on the proposed Master Plan.

Land Use: Future land use to be taken under consideration in Section 30 will consist of the following: one family limited multiple family, apartment and hotel; trailer park, commercial, industrial, park and watercourse.

A map of this future street and land use plan is on file in the Office of the City Planning Department for inspection by all persons interested in this matter.

This future street and land use plan does not constitute a new zoning plan or a change, but reflects the general program of the Commission with respect to future land use and future zoning in this Section.

Further hearing will be held upon precise zoning for this Section at later dates.

At the hearings before the Commission, all interested persons and the general public will be afforded an opportunity to be heard.

Son Guest at Home Of Mrs. J. A. Ream

Mrs. Jay A. Ream of Desert Hot Springs, was recently visited by her son Warren Ream who flew out from New York to visit her.

They motored together to Pasadena visiting relatives there and also in Norwalk, then to San Diego, La Jolla and Del Mar.

From there they followed highways 101 and 1 to visit the Sam Simeon Hearst State Park. Big Sur was another treat and they then went on to San Francisco by way of Carmel and the seventeen mile drive and Monterey.

"Jack Benny" Party Proves Big Success

CATHEDRAL CITY — The "Jack Benny Party" held at the home of Mrs. Jeanne Hicks Tuesday evening, to swell the coffers of the Desert Business and Professional Women's Club of Cathedral City, was a most successful evening of food and fun.

Under the chairmanship of Doris Flemming (Health and Safety), and members of her committee, Ethel Addessi, Arvilla Allred, Lois Clock, Nora Snyder and Marion Monette, the members and guests in attendance enjoyed a delectable spaghetti dinner, the grab bag of surprises, swimming and various fun raising games.

Dr. Ruth McCammon, Pathologist at Desert Hospital, gave a most interesting talk on the general knowledge of pathology, how they work and how the nature of a patient's illness and progress is determined.

Two films were shown; one on the mental slant on good relationship among fellow workers and the other on scientific diet and nutrition, the basis of good health; rounded out a diversified evening of enlightenment and entertainment.

NEW BAY PARKING for the Palm Springs High School is well underway and will be completed by the time school starts in September. The construction of the side road which will be used exclusive for bus loading and unloading will be at the side of the high school plant on Cerritos Road. The bus loading zone was moved from in front of the school on Ramon Road. Other new site developments this summer include a wall in front of the school, sidewalks, parking, and landscaping. (Desert Sun Photo).

Defeat of Housing Bill Applauded by Contractors

Defeat of the 1958 Housing Bill DEFEAT OF HOUSING 2-24-2 . . . Defeat of the 1958 Housing Bill by the House this week was applauded by the nation's largest regional builders organization, the Building Contractors Association of California.

"House action in voting down the Omnibus Housing Bill is a reassuring sign that Congress can see past the mountains of selfish arguments by special interest groups and decide what is best for the country as a whole," Leo J. Volk, BCA president, declared. "There was much in the proposed legislation that would have been beneficial to home buyers and the building industry," Volk said, "but the good was far outweighed by provision to spend millions of dollars on projects of dubious value to the general public, some of which were not even remotely related to housing."

The building industry leader asserted that home building in southern California will not be hindered in providing needed construction by failure of what he termed the "good parts of the Bill" to be put into law. BCA members are continuing their 1957 pace of building better than one out of every 25 homes in the nation, he reported.

"Too often our law makers have been pressured into passing bad legislation to obtain some desirable features tied in with it," Volk declared. "We concur with the majority of Congressmen that it was best to defeat the 1958 Housing Bill when they were prevented from stripping it of its bad features."

Table Model TV Sets Can Convert To Consoles

Owners of table model television sets can convert them into handsome consoles by the addition of an easily constructed base.

A second speaker placed in the new base offers still another advantage for this will result in marked improvement of the sound in all tonal ranges.

Complete information and plan to build a base are given in the current issue of Workbench magazine. Specifications can be changed so the unit will be custom designed for any size set.

Short tapered legs are recommended for the base, and they are mounted in the popular cantilever style for a distinctive appearance.

The top, sides, base and speaker board of the new unit are made of plywood. Grill cloth, wrapped around the speaker board and glued to the back side, adds to the trim looks of the base.

Choice of a speaker is wide but a satisfactory eight-inch coaxial model with a center-mounted tweeter runs less than ten dollars.

The Workbench points out that the new base can be used equally well with a portable television set. A plug is placed on the speaker wire so the set can be disconnected for use elsewhere.

4-Day Cooking School Farmer's Fair Feature

A four-day cooking school, "Blue Flame Magic" will be presented by the Southern California Gas Co. at the Farmers Fair of Riverside County, which begins Wednesday at the Farmers Fair, Hemet.

There will be door prizes each day, with a grand prize of a gas range to be given away at the conclusion of the series of schools.

Betty Heller and Nancy Donnanville, assisted by Lou Ann Pulsider, home economists will conduct the classes which are scheduled as: Thursday, "Party Foods;" Friday, "Foreign Flavors;" Saturday, "Features and Facts;" and Sunday the concluding session, "Fun for the Family."

Finish Won't Fade or Stain

A new finish for outdoor furniture that won't fade, stain, chip, peel or show any effect from weathering has been discovered by Arvin Industries, Inc., one of the largest manufacturers of summer and casual furniture.

Called Lustracolor, the new finish is a plastic that is applied electrostatically to aluminum furniture and then hardened by heat.

Gardening in the Desert

Today is August the 22nd; this leaves the ardent amateur gardener with approximately four more weeks of plant - scorching sunshine and heavy water bills, then, if Old Sol follows the pattern of past years, thermometer readings will gradually lift a load from our troubles and gardening will become less and less disappointing. That lethargic feeling will disappear, tons upon tons of grass seed, peat moss, humus, steer manure, chemical fertilizers and other plant growing materials will have been hauled into our city nurseries and the planting season will be on the way.

In past editions of the Daily Desert Sun we have given the amateur gardener some advice on preparing the soil which he hopes to turn into a luscious green lawn; removing building debris, killing all weeds that might — if not destroyed — ruin his handwork, feeding the soil with peat moss and humus, leveling the surface and watering copiously for a week or so before planting the seed. Our City Fathers are opposed to the use of manure as a cover after the seeds are scattered, they also prohibit the stowing of steer manure or horse manure in the open. To the average homeowner this might sound rather arbitrary but a close study of their reason for this action will convince us all that they have our well-being in mind. Piles of manure are feeding and propagating beds for flies, anyone who has been around stables will appreciate this. The City Fathers want to keep the fly population down to a minimum and we should appreciate and abide by their regulations.

While on this subject we should advise covering the seeds after they are scattered with dampened peat moss. When the grass has grown high enough to warrant use of a mower a light spreading of any of the commercial chemical fertilizers concocted especially for lawns is advisable. This should be repeated every month and immediate watering is imperative.

While on the subject of lawns we should advise the amateur gardener that the experts claim that liquid fertilizers, prepared especially for the growth of dichondra, is best for this type of lawn; and we agree with them. There are many other types of ground covering: lippia, zysia—a new product, ice plant — for sandy slopes, creeping thyme, etc. However, we advise the amateur gardener to cling to the old standby until he has made a deep study of other ground coverings.

There are many lawns in and around our city that have a combination of bermuda and rye; the idea of this combination of planting is that bermuda becomes brown in the winter months and the winter planting of rye seed remains green. Those we see around are professional jobs and we would advise the amateur gardener to leave well enough alone until he has studied the system. We have read of a new bermuda seed that has the reputation of differing from the bermuda we know and has not the choking out effects of the old bermuda.

Gardeners Checklist

1. Here are some vegetables to sow this month: beets, carrots, beans, turnips and cabbages.
2. Before sowing gladiolus bulbs, sprinkle with a DDT preparation.
3. You can combat mildew on chrysanthemums with special sprays available at your nursery.
4. Violas, Pansies, Calendulas and Snapdragons can be set now for winter or early spring bloom.
5. Although lawns can be planted almost anytime in California, August is the ideal time in many areas.

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By JACK CUDDY United Press International Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP) — Al Lopez believes his White Sox can overhaul the Yankees because of pitching.

"Pitching is largely the answer to what's happened to the two clubs so far this season," said Al Lopez during a chat in the dugout before Thursday night's game with the New York Yankees at Yankee Stadium.

He explained: "The Yankees got off to a good start because their pitchers were doing much better than expected. But our start was bad because our pitching was so far off par."

Although the Yankees were 10½ games ahead of Chicago before Thursday night's game, Lopez said he was confident of overtaking Casey Stengel's outfit "because since about mid-July our pitching has returned to normal," whereas Yankee flingers have been off form.

DURING THAT PERIOD Don Larsen scored a single victory and lost three; Bob Turley went 3-3; Whitey Ford, 3-2, and Art Ditmar, 4-3.

Meanwhile at least three White Sox hurlers were zooming: Dick Donovan with five wins and one loss; Ray Moore, 4-0, and Billy Pierce, 4-2.

"In Florida training, Stengel was worried about his pitching," Lopez continued. "But the Yankees got off to a flying start. As I recall, Turley won his first seven straight, and Larsen his first five straight. Others were doing well, too, and Ryne Duren proved an unexpectedly fine reliever. But he's out now with an injured leg, I believe."

The White Sox began to find themselves about July 18 and since then they rose from sixth place to second and paled the Yankees' lead over them from 17 games to 10½, at the time Lopez was talking.

IN THAT SURGE pitchers Donovan, Moore and Pierce, aided by relievers Turk Lown and Gerry Staley were the important factor, he said. And they have been getting good hitting support from outfielder Jim Landis, as well as Nellie Fox, Luis Aparicio and Billy Goodman.

Lopez and his White Sox had won seven straight games before they started their three - contest series at the stadium Thursday night.

"I still think we can win the pennant," Al said. "I'm still banking on our pitching — just as I said before the season opened. This would be a close race, indeed, if New York hadn't got off to that big jump and if our pitching had been normal during the first half of the season."

Green Puts Biltmore in Final Round

With Neal Green hurling a no-hitter, Biltmore softball nine moved into the finals of the District last night at Evans Field, Riverside.

The Villagers defeated the Riverside Merchants 6 to 0 and will meet the California Water and Telephone Company nine of Indio in the finals tomorrow night.

Game time is 8 o'clock. O. B. Crawford of Biltmore paced his team's victory with a home run and triple and Don Durant had a double and a single.

Green pitched one of his best games of the season in turning back the Riversiders without a hit.

Winner of tomorrow night's final goes to Santa Ana to compete in the California Athletic Foundation Softball finals starting September 2.

Griffith on Hot Spot as Indians Force His Hand

WASHINGTON (UP) — Owner Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators squirmed on a hot spot today because the Cleveland Indians' announcement they are considering moving their franchise is forcing his own hand on the same matter.

If Griffith really wants to move his club to Minneapolis — which Thursday he refused to deny — he may have to move fast before the Indians beat him to the punch.

If he decides he does want to move, he may have lots of trouble getting a vote of approval from the league and, in addition, may incur the wrath of Congress.

If Griffith asks the American League for permission to move to Minneapolis, he could draw negative votes not only from the Indians but also from the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox.

Griffith refused to deny a published report he will ask for transfer approval as soon as the Senators end their current-home stand on Sept. 3.

Braves, Yankees Move Up

Back on Road to Pennants

By JOHN GRIFFIN United Press International

Lew Burdette and Bob Turley, two money players who probably would pitch the opening game, have the Braves and Yankees back on the high road to the World Series.

Just when the comfortable league leads of both teams seemed in danger, Burdette sent the Braves 6½ games in front in the National League when he whipped the Los Angeles Dodgers, 4-0 Thursday night and Turley turned back the surging Chicago White Sox, 6-3, to put the Yankees 11½ ahead in the American.

Burdette, who doled out four hits to the Dodgers, now has won eight games since the all - Star Game.

TURLEY ALLOWED six Chicago hits in gaining his 18th victory of the year, tops in the majors and an all-time career high for him.

The two right-handers won real big games Thursday night. The Braves were in trouble, with their lead down to 5½ games and a five-game series with the second-place Giants right around the corner. But the Giants dropped an 8-1 game to Don Newcombe of Cincinnati in the afternoon and that gave Burdette his chance.

A four - run explosion in the fourth inning, including homers by Hank Aaron and Burdette himself, was all he needed.

AT YANKEE STADIUM, the White Sox came in sassy to start a three-game series, riding a seven-game winning streak. They'd gained 5½ games on the Yankees in the last three weeks, winning 15 out of 20, and they got off to a 1-0 first - inning lead against Turley.

But the Yankees crept ahead, 3-2, and then broke the game open with three runs in the seventh on three singles, a walk, and two sacrifice flies.

In other Thursday games the St. Louis Cardinals behind Larry Jackson nipped the Philadelphia Phils, 2-1; Ernie Banks' 39th and 40th homers gave the Chicago Cubs a 5-3 win over Pittsburgh; the Boston Red Sox outslugged Cleveland, 8 - 6; Gus Triandos' homer gave Baltimore a 7-6 win over Detroit; and Hec Lopez' two homers led the Kansas City A's to a 7-4 win over Washington.

Merchants Meet Dodger Rookies At Polo Grounds

It's Dodger night in Palm Springs tonight! Marking their Palm Springs debut, the Dodger Rookies take on the Palm Springs Merchants in an exhibition baseball game at the Polo Grounds.

Starting time is 8 p.m., and City Recreation Superintendent Howard Haddock urged Village ball fans to turn out for what is shaping up as the years best diamond battle.

The Dodger Rookies team, composed of California college and high school diamond stars, has won 90 per cent of its games during a statewide tour.

Two tournaments will be played at the Salton Sea Polo Field, the California Open and the California Handicap.

Date for the tournaments, which will be sponsored by the U.S. Polo Association, have not yet been announced.

23 Yankees, 29 for Braves in Pennant Races

United Press International

The "magic number" for the New York Yankees is 23, and for the Chicago White Sox that means "23-skidoo."

The Yankees' 6-3 victory over the White Sox Thursday means that the Yankees can clinch the American League pennant by winning 23 of their remaining 33 games. Or any combination of Yankee wins and Chicago losses adding to 23 will do it.

In the National League, the Milwaukee Braves, with a 6½ game lead, also have 33 to play. But their "magic number" for a pennant clinching is 29.

Dawson Outlines Active Program

Johnny Dawson of Eldorado Country Club and Dr. Bud Taylor of Pomona, well-known figures on Palm Springs golf links, are facing a strong September competitive links program.

The two stars of the golf links attended a meeting in Los Angeles this week at the California Club during which time officials of the California Golf Association and Southern California Golf Association outlined plans for six championship golfing events.

In another major championship disclosure, John C. Clock of the Virginia Country Club at Long Beach revealed dates for the first annual World Amateur 72 - hole tournament at Scotland's St. Andrews Golf Club, beginning Oct. 8.

The immortal Bobby Jones will be non - playing captain of the United States 4-man team to compete at St. Andrews. Thirty-three countries will send entries.

Wade to Get Test Tonight With Giants

Rams Favored by Three Points in Coliseum Tussle

LOS ANGELES — (UP) — The jury that's been out on quarterback Bill Wade since he took over as head man of the Rams comes in tonight when the Los Angeles team meets the New York Giants in the Coliseum.

Wade did everything but lime the field last Saturday in sparking the Rams to a 31-10 victory over the Washington Redskins in the local club's first exhibition game.

But despite the fact that Wade passed for two touchdowns, ran for another and picked up 60 yards in six carries, many felt the Redskins line did not rush the former Vanderbilt star hard enough for a test.

THE RAMS, favored by three points, feel that the Giants will be the real test. They have one of the roughest defensive lines in the National Football League with the likes of Andy Robustelli, Jim Kacavage, Sam Huff and Dick Modzelwski.

Last week the tough New York whippersnappers the San Francisco Forty Niners 19 - 10 mostly on their defensive play. The Giants blocked two kicks and intercepted two passes.

FRANK GIFFORD, former University of Southern California star, will be in the New York backfield along with Alex Webster and Phil King.

Gillman hopes to test five Ram rookies who played in the all-star game in Chicago, playing Lou Michaels at defensive end, John Baker at defensive tackle, Bill Jobko at linebacker, Jim Phillips at offensive end and Jimmy Jones at fullback.

Turner Favored 7-5 Over Red Tonight

NEW YORK — (UP) — Slugger Stefan Redl of Germany will try to smash into the welterweight rankings tonight in a 10 - round nationally televised fight with contender GI Turner at Madison Square Garden.

Turner, of Philadelphia, is favored at 7-5, largely because of his greater experience.

Former Indians In All Star Game

East and West All Stars are polishing their respective offensive attacks in preparation for the first Annual Riverside County All Star Football game tonight at 8 o'clock at Wheelock Field in Riverside.

The game promises to be an outstanding show of offensive power. The East squad, under Coach Ben Hammerschmidt, displaying the freeheeling single wing has been installed seven point favorites. However, Coach Dave Lewis of the West, is predicting a win for his razzle-dazzle T formation stalwarts.

"We're hoping to diminish their edge in weight with speed and desire and to take advantage of the East's definite line weakness," commented West headman Dave Lewis today.

APPARENTLY THE underdog role isn't bothering the West, since Lewis confidently added that his club is "eagerly looking forward to this game."

Meanwhile the East continued to stress offensive perfection and worked against defensive variations in their final drills this week.

"Our team is shaping up," said assistant coach, Roger Harlowe. "We are beginning to get our timing down and our blocking has been sharp in dummy drills," added the Coachella Valley master.

DAVID LANCE and Bob Jackson are contenders for starting berths on the East eleven. The Palm Springs footballers have shown considerable promise and will be counted upon heavily according to Coach Hammerschmidt the east mentor.

Officials of the Riverside Junior Chamber of Commerce, the games sponsor, announced ticket booths will open at 6:30 p.m. and, due to the anticipated large crowd, urged fans to obtain their tickets as early as possible.

What Is A Boy?

Between the innocence of babyhood and the dignity of manhood we find a delightful creature called a boy. Boys come in assorted sizes, weights and colors, but all boys have the same creed: to enjoy every second of every minute of every hour of every day and to protest with noise (their only weapon) when their last minute is finished and the adult males pack them off to bed at night.

Boys are found everywhere—on top of, underneath, inside of, climbing on, swinging from, running around, or jumping to. Mothers love them, little girls hate them, older sisters and brothers tolerate them, adults ignore them, and Heaven protects them. A boy is Truth with dirt on his face, Beauty with a cut on his finger, Wisdom with bubble gum in his hair, and Hope of the future with a frog in his pocket.

When you are busy, a boy is an inconsiderate bothersome, intruding jangle of noise. When you want him to make a good impression, his brain turns to jelly or else he becomes a savage, satirical, jungle creature bent on destroying the world with himself in it.

A boy is a composite—he has the appetite of a horse, the digestion of a sword swallower, the energy of a pocket-size atomic bomb, the curiosity of a cat, the lungs of a dictator, the imagination of a Paul Bunyan, the shyness of a violet, the audacity of a steel trap, the enthusiasm of a firecracker, and when ne makes something he has five thumbs on each hand. He likes ice cream, knives, saws, Christmas, comic books, the boy across the street, woods, water (in its natural habitat), large animals, Dad, trains, Saturday mornings, and fire engines. He is not much for Sunday School, company, schools, books without pictures, music lessons, neckties, barbers, girls, overcoats, adults or bedtime.

Nobody else is so early to rise, or so late to supper. Nobody else gets so much fun out of trees, dogs, and breezes. Nobody else can cram into one pocket a rusty knife, a half-eaten apple, 3 feet of string, an empty Bull Durham sack, 2 gum drops, 6 cents, a sling shot, a chunk of unknown substance, and a genuine superperson code ring with a secret compartment.

A boy is a magical creature—you can lock him out of your workshop, but you can't lock him out of your heart. You can get him out of your study, but you can't get him out of your mind. Might as well give up—he is your captor, your jailer, your boss and your master—a freckle-faced, pint-sized, cat-chasing, bundle of noise.

But when you come home at night with only the shattered pieces of your hopes and dreams, he can mend them like new with just these two magic words—"Hi Dad!"
